1957-58 NEW YORK KNICKERBOCKERS

COACH VINCE BORYLA

Age*—30, born in East Chicago, Ind., March 11, 1927
Height*—6 feet 5 inches. Weight—215 pounds
Home*—Denver, Colo. Colleges—Notre Dame and Denver Univs.

This is Boryla's second full season as coach of the New York Knickerbockers, for whom he starred five seasons (1949-50 through 1953-54). He led the Knicks in scoring in 1950-51 with 982 points for a 14.9 average. Vince was an All-America selection at both Notre Dame and Denver Universities, and was a member of the 1948 U. S. Olympic squad that won the title in London.

In 1949 he received the New York basketball writers' Gold Star Award as the season's outstanding visiting player after scoring 36 points (for Denver) against St. John's in Madison Square Garden. He broke four Notre Dame records, as a freshman, in 1944-45. In the off season he resides in Denver, where he is in business, with his wife Cappi and their three children. Boryla succeeded Joe Lapchick as New York coach Feb. 11, 1956.

Vince was the youngest of five children. His father is retired and his only brother is a building contractor in East Chicago, which is 20 miles from Chicago. His parents were born in Poland. His introduction to basketball was in the alleys of East Chicago with baskets nailed to telephone poles and over garage doors. He moved on to grade school gyms and then to Washington High. "I didn't know much about the game until I was a senior at Washington," he said, "and met up with Nelson 'Doc' Irwin, a very smart coach. From him I learned all the shots and moves." That one year under Irwin led Vince to being named all-state scholastic center for 1943-44.

Boryla entered Notre Dame in 1944. As a freshman he set four school marks, including 31 points for a single game and 322 for a season. He joined the Navy in April of 1945 and was stationed at Great Lakes. There 10 weeks, he received the principal appointment from Indiana for the U. S. Naval Academy. He remained at Annapolis through October, 1945, resigned and returned to Notre Dame to finish his sophomore term. In September, 1946, he enlisted in the Army.

From September 1946 to January 1947 he coached and played for Fort Sheridan, near Chicago, winning 20 of 21 games. He then transferred to Lowry Air Base in Denver, where he played with the Denver Nuggets, making the All-America AAU team two years. When he was released from service, in 1948, he finished his collegiate career at Denver University, receiving his AB in business administration. At Notre Dame he had been a pre-med student. Playing for Denver in 1948-49 he was the fourth highest scorer in the nation with 624 points, averaging 18.9 for 33 games.

It was in Denver that Boryla met his wife, Catherine Brogan, on a blind date. She is the daughter of a Nebraska cattle rancher. They were married in September, 1948, and have three children, Karen, Mike (who was born in Rockville Centre, Long Island) and Mark.

National Basketball Association Rules

1. All games will be played in four 12-minute periods.
2. Each player is permitted six personal fouls.
3. The free-throw lane is to be bounded by two lines 12 feet apart.
4. Any player who is fouled and injured and cannot attempt his foul shot and must be removed from the game, for a substitute, cannot re-enter the game. His substitute is to be selected by the opposing coach.
5. If a double foul occurs, and participating players thereby incur a sixth personal, such players shall attempt the foul shot before leaving the game.
6. No zone defense is allowed.
7. When a team is reduced to five eligible players these players must finish the game, except in case of injury. Any one of the last five players upon committing his sixth personal foul shall be penalized with a technical foul in addition to the personal. The same penalty shall be imposed for any additional personal fouls committed after the sixth personal foul. An injured player who must be replaced can be replaced only by the last player who was put out of the game.
8. A team shall be limited to six personal fouls per quarter, with each foul in excess of six per quarter to be penalized by an additional free throw, with certain reservations. In overtime periods each team will be limited to three personal fouls.
9. During the last two minutes of the game, the time clock shall be stopped whenever a ball goes out of bounds.
10. The spaces now designated by the figures H and V alongside the free throw lane shall be occupied by two players of the defensive team, with the other players alternating on both sides of the free-throw lane.
11. The areas midway between each end line and parallel to the end lines are considered the forecourt of the team whose basket is located therein, the balance of the court being considered that team's backcourt. If a player is in absolute control of the ball in his backcourt and is fouled this foul calls for two free throws.
12. The offensive team must take a shot at its basket within 24 seconds after gaining possession of the ball. Failure to do so will result in the loss of the ball, the opposing team putting it in play from out-of-bounds.
13. A team is allowed a minimum of 10 seconds on out-of-bound plays, regardless of time showing under 10 seconds on the 24-second clock.

Height*—6 feet 5 inches. Weight—180 pounds
Home*—Garden City, N. Y. College—Colgate

This is Braun's ninth season with the Knicks, three prior to Army induction in 1950 and six since returning in 1952. Seven of his eight years he led the club in scoring. He placed third to Harry Gallatin and Ken Sears last season with 1001 points in 72 games for a 13.9 average. However, he was the team's leader in assists with 256 and in foul shooting with an .808 percentage. In five of his past eight years he scored over 1000 points. His best season was 1955-56 when he totalled 1112 for a 15.4 average, twelfth best in the NBA. Carl signed with the Knicks in 1947 and that winter scored 47 points against Providence, which is still a single game high for a Knick. He holds two all-time records for New York's other home court, the 69th Regt. Armory—38 points and 18 free throws, both made against Washington, Feb. 22, 1950. His 18 field goals at Providence in 1947 is also a Knick record to date. Carl's best game in 1956-57 was 32 points at Rochester, Feb. 13. He was voted to the past five East teams for the annual NBA East-West Classic, but did not compete in 1956 because of an injury. Named to the NBA second team in 1948 and 1954. At Colgate in 1945-46 he scored 296 points in 16 games for a new school record, and he held the Long Island scholastic mark with 396 in 17 games while at Garden City High. Tried professional baseball as a pitcher in the New York Yankees' chain, but quit after 1948. Low handicap golfer with a yen to turn pro. Married.

RAY FELIX

Age*—27, born in New York City, Dec. 10, 1930
Height*—6 feet 11 inches, Weight—220 pounds
Home*—East Elmhurst, N. Y. College—Long Island

Big Ray is in his fourth season with New York and fifth in the NBA and didn't miss a game in four years. He played with the Baltimore Bullets in 1953-54, where he won recognition as the rookie-of-the-year after scoring 1,269 points for a 17.6 average, fifth best in the league. He had 958 rebounds and a .417 shooting percentage. Baltimore traded him to New York in the Summer of 1954, along with Chuck Grigsby, for Connie Simmons and Al McGuire. Last season Felix showed an even 12.0 average in making 867 points in 72 games. He was runner-up to Ken Sears in field goal accuracy with .416. His rebounds totalled 587. He did not see as much action as in his two previous years with New York. His best season in a Knick uniform was 1954-55 when he totalled 1,038 points for a 14.4 average. His top night last Winter was 26 points at Rochester when he made 10 of 14 field goal attempts. His all-time Knick high is 31 points, at Boston, in March of 1955. Felix is one of the tallest players in the game and scores mostly on hooks with either hand from the pivot. He played varsity as a sophomore at Long Island University, under Coach Clair Bee, who selected him as his number one draft choice in 1953 when Bee took over the Baltimore Bullets. Between leaving LIU and signing with Baltimore Ray played semi-pro basketball. He's single.

LARRY FRIEND

Age*—22, born in Chicago, April 14, 1935.
Height*—6 feet 4½ inches. Weight—186 pounds
Home*—Los Angeles, Calif. College—California

This all-Pacific Coast Conference selection was one of the Knicks' top 1957 draft selections. Last season he set an all-time University of California record with 491 points in 26 games for an 18.9 average, hitting 44.6 percent of his field goal tries and 72.5 from the free throw line. He was the Bears' second best rebounder the past two years. Defensively, Friend was equally valuable to California, which won the Coast Conference title with a 14-2 record. He consistently stole passes, broke up in-bounds plays and was the key man in the Bears' all-court press. Larry was an unanimous choice for the NCAA Western Regionals first team last season and was voted the most valuable player in that tournament. He took part in the 1957 annual East-West All-Star Game in Madion Square Garden. Before entering California he attended Los Angeles' Fairfax High and had one year at Los Angeles City College. He is a southpaw, scoring from outside with a left-hand jump shot, and he is also effective with the Eastern style two-hand set. He drives strongly for lay-ups from either side. Most coaches in his area rate Friend the best all-around player the West Coast has had in years. Larry was named to the first string of every conference or regional all-star team last winter and was on the Associated Press' third All-America five. He was married the past September.

RICHIE GUERIN

Age*—25, born in Bronx, N. Y., May 29, 1932
Height*—6 feet 4 inches. Weight—195 pounds
Home*—Huntington Station, N. Y. College—Iona

Second season with the Knicks. Drafted in 1954, but served two years with the Quantico Marines. Had great freshman year as pro, scoring 695 points for 9.7 average. Destined to become one of league's top backcourt men. Speedy, hard driver, fine playmaker and good outside shot. Averaged 12 points in 12 games against the champion Boston Celtics. His 35 points, against Boston, in the Garden, Feb. 19, was the single game high of the season for a Knick, as were his 14 field goals, in the same contest, and his 9 assists against Minneapolis, in the Armory, Feb. 16. Those 35 points were the second highest ever made by a Knick. Carl Braun once made 47 at Providence. Guerin holds all Iona College major scoring records, including 519 points in 21 games, in 1953-54, for a 24.7 average to lead all scorers in the New York metropolitan area. His career total of 1,351 in three years and his 40 points against John Carroll, in 1954, are other Iona marks. He was an unanimous All-Met selection for 1954 and captained Iona in his senior campaign. He led the Quantico Marines in 1954-55 with 915 points, and his 40 against Parris Island broke a Quantico record held by Paul Arizin. Richie was named to the 1955 All-America AAU team, and in 1956 he was voted the most valuable player in the Midwest Tournament as well as in the Armed Forces Olympic Trials at Louisville. He's married.

Hutchins came to the Knickerbockers last Spring in one of the most important trades in the history of the NBA. New York gave up Harry Gallatin and Nat Clifton to the Detroit Pistons (formerly Ft. Wayne) in exchange for Hutchins and Charlie Tyra, of Louisville, the Pistons' top draft selection. Hutchins first played in Madison Square Garden with Brigham Young University in 1951 when he and Roland Minson led the Cougars to the National Invitation Tournament championship. That Spring Minson was drafted by the Knicks and Hutchins by the Milwaukee Hawks, but Minson served five years in the armed forces and did not join New York. After two seasons with Milwaukee, Hutchins was sold to Ft. Wayne for a reported $25,000. Last year was one of Mel's best as a pro. He scored 890 points for a 12.4 average and took 571 rebounds for runner-up honors in both to teammate George Yardley. Hutchins has averaged 12 or more points for three straight years. This swift, graceful athlete, with a distinctive one-hand push shot from the corners, is generally regarded as the best defensive player in the league. He is rugged and has a keen sense of anticipation and cat-like reflexes. Once he held the great Bob Pettit to four points. Hutchins was elected "rookie of the year" in 1952, and he was a member of the 1953, 1954, 1956 and 1957 East-West All-Star squads. His sister Colleen, Miss America of 1952, is married to Dr. Ernie Vandeweghe, former Knick star. In the off-season Mel, who is married, prospects for uranium. This is his seventh pro campaign.

PHIL JORDON

Age*—24, born Lake Port, Calif., Sept. 12, 1933
Height*—6 feet 10 inches, Weight—205 pounds
Home*—Tacoma, Wash. College—Whitworth

Jordon reported to the Knicks, Jan. 1, 1957, and remained with them until Feb. 3 when he was farmed out. He appeared briefly in nine New York games, and was unable to show his best form because of illness and underweight. He picked up 15 pounds in the off-season. The big fellow starred at Whitworth College and in AAU basketball with Buchan Bakers, helping that club to win the national championship. He has an accurate hook shot out of the pivot and is an aggressive rebounder. Lack of experience in pro competition is a handicap. Has unusually large hands and can hold a basketball with two fingers. His arm reach is 86 inches. Jordon played high school basketball in Willits, Calif., and Redding, Calif. The past Summer he umpired in the Little League and did a lot of water skiing and played tennis to strengthen his legs. He has twin brothers, Larry and Perry, who made the all-city basketball team at North Central High in Spokane.

BRENDAN McCANN

Age*—22, born in Brooklyn, July 5, 1935
Height*—6 feet 2 inches, Weight—178 pounds
Home*—Brooklyn, N. Y. College—St. Bonaventure

This newcomer to the Knicks captained last season's St. Bonaventure team which reached the semi-finals of the National Invitation Tournament in Madison Square Garden. The Brooklynite was one of the stars of the NIT. He scored 17 points against Cincinnati; 13 points and nine assists when the Bonnies upset top seeded Seattle, and 14 points and 14 rebounds when the upstate five bowed in overtime to Memphis State. McCann was Knick coach Vince Boryla's top draft pick for 1957 after New York had obtained Louisville's Charlie Tyra and Mel Hutchins from the Detroit Pistons for Harry Gallatin and Nat Clifton. Brendan was rated one of the best ball handlers, drivers and set shots in Eastern collegiate competition the past two years. He averaged 11.8 points for St. Bonaventure last winter, and 16.3 when he led the team in scoring in 1955-56. McCann broke into the starting lineup in 1954 as a sophomore and the following season was named to the all-star team of the Middle Eastern College Association. He entered St. Bonaventure from Brooklyn's Manual High School. McCann is essentially a team player whose offensive potential at St. Bonaventure was sacrificed for defense. He was always assigned the opposing team's scoring ace.

WILLIE NAULLS

Age*—23, born in Dallas, Tex., Oct. 7, 1934
Height*—6 feet 6½ inches. Weight—225 pounds
Home*—Los Angeles, Calif. College—UCLA

This is Naulls' first full season with the Knicks and his second in the NBA. He was drafted in 1956 by the St. Louis Hawks, who traded him to the Knicks, Dec. 10, 1956, for Slater Martin. In 19 games with St. Louis he scored 195 points for a 10.3 average. For 52 games with New York he made 523 points for a 10.0 average. His overall total for 71 games was 718 points, averaging 10.1. He had 617 rebounds for second spot to Harry Gallatin. Willie is very fast and an accurate one-hand shooter from the corners. At UCLA he was an unanimous choice for All-America honors in his senior year after leading UCLA to the Pacific Coast Conference title. His 661 points in 28 games, for a 23.6 average, in 1955-56, was a new UCLA record. He was the first UCLA player ever to top 600 points in a single season. Other school marks held by him are 1,225 points in three years; 653 in three conference seasons; 39 in a single game, against California, and 410 rebounds in one year. He set a PCC record for free throws with 17 of 18, also against California. He first performed in Madison Square Garden in 1955 when UCLA took part in the annual Holiday Festival. San Francisco beat UCLA in the final, but Naulls was outstanding. He outscored Bill Russell, 71 points to 67, for three tourney games and 19 to 17 in the championship test. Willie made his Knick debut here, Dec. 11, against his former teammates, the St. Louis Hawks, and tossed in 21 points in the 24 minutes he played. He was most effective against the Boston Celtics, averaging 12.5 points for 10 games. Naulls has a large collection of jive records and plays bongo and conga drums expertly. He was married last June.

KENNY SEARS

Age*—24, born in Watsonville, Calif., Aug. 17, 1933
Height*—6 feet 9 inches. Weight—195 pounds
Home*—Watsonville, Calif. College—Santa Clara

In only two seasons with the Knicks, Sears has established himself as one of the best big men in the NBA. In 1955-56, his first campaign in pro basketball, Sears scored 896 points for a 12.8 average and grabbed 616 rebounds. Last season he raised his points total to 1,069 for a 14.8 average and took 614 rebounds. He scored just 10 points less than the veteran Harry Gallatin. Kenny's field goal percentage of .418 was best among the New Yorkers. His free throw average was .789, third to Carl Braun and Gallatin. He averaged double figures against every league rival from a low of 12.7 against Philadelphia to a high of 17.8 against St. Louis. His 17 of 18 foul shots in Boston, Nov. 3, was the top such mark for the Knicks last winter. His single game high is 33, made against Rochester, in the Garden, Dec. 30, 1956. The blond Californian was New York's first draft pick in 1955 after favorable scouting reports and the strong recommendation of Bob Feerick, Santa Clara coach, who starred in the pro circuit with the Washington Capitols when they were winning titles. Sears is, perhaps, the best outside shot among the NBA big men with his soft one-handers and he has tremendous leap under the boards. In his senior season at Santa Clara, Sears made 535 points for a 22.3 average behind a sensational .501 shooting percentage. In his junior and senior years he was voted the outstanding player in Northern California ahead of San Francisco's Bill Russell. Kenny was also named to the NCAA Western Regionals team three successive years. In his first high school year his height rose from 5-9 to 6-3, and he was 6-6 when he enrolled at Santa Clara. The handsome youngster is a bachelor.

RONNIE SHAVLIK

Age*—24, born in Denver, Colo., Dec. 4, 1933
Height*—6 feet 8 inches. Weight—200 pounds
Home*—Raleigh, N. C. College—North Carolina State

This former All-America from North Carolina State was farmed out by the Knicks in December, 1956, after playing seven league games. Ronnie sustained a broken wrist late in his final season at State, and was still handicapped by the injury when he reported to the Knicks' camp with resultant effect on his shooting and rebounding. After leaving the Knicks he played 25 games with a touring team last winter, and the past Summer worked out almost daily in the NC State gym, which is near his Raleigh home. His wrist has completely healed. Shavlik led State to three straight Atlantic Coast Conference championships, and won All-America recognition each year. He had a career total of 1,761 points, an average of 18.5, and took 1,598 rebounds for a 16.8 average. He holds most of State's all-time records, including 707 points for one season; 55 points and 35 rebounds for one game. Ronnie was named to the Atlantic Coast Conference first team three years running, and was voted the most valuable player in the 1954 Dixie Classic. Moves with good speed for height. Originally from Denver, where he made all-state at East High, Shavlik married a Raleigh girl, Beverly Anne Senna, and now makes his home there.

RON SOBIE

Age*—23, born in Chicago, Ill., Sept. 21, 1934
Height*—6 feet 3 inches. Weight—195 pounds
Home*—Cicero, Ill. College—DePaul

Another of the Knicks' promising sophomores. Broke in last season with 484 points for 6.8 average as a part time operator. One of best rebounders for his height in the NBA. Very aggressive with good outside set and likes to drive. Good foul shooter. His .764 percentage was fourth best of Knicks. His high game was 23 points against Philadelphia, in the Garden, Jan. 29, when he hit 9 of 14 from the floor and 5 of 6 free throws. Last Summer, called by the Army, he served six months at Ft. Jackson, S. C. Sobie is the only player in DePaul history—including George Mikan—who scored 300 or more points each season. He holds the DePaul three-season record with 1,222 points and is surpassed in DePaul career scoring only by Mikan (1,870) and Jim Lamkin (1,306) both of whom had four years of competition. Ron was born on Chicago's West Side, now lives in suburban Cicero. For 1955-56 at DePaul he made 540 points in 24 games for a 22.5 average, took 319 rebounds for 13.2 and had a .468 field goal percentage. He was named the most valuable player of the 1956 College All-Americans on the national tour with the Harlem Globetrotters, finishing ahead of Duquesne's Si Green and Holy Cross' Tom Heinsohn in the voting. He averaged 13.9 for the 21 games against the Trotters. Sobie attended St. Bonaventure Academy in Sturtevant, Wis., and won Catholic high school All-America recognition as a senior, scoring 500 points. He was selected for the all-tournament team of DePaul's 1955 invitation in the Chicago Stadium, along with Bill Russell and K. C. Jones of San Francisco; Terry Rand, Marquette, and Si Green, Duquesne. His correct name is Sobieszczyk, pronounced so-bee-ESS-check. Single.

GUY SPARROW

Age*—25, born in Pontiac, Mich., Nov. 2, 1932
Height*—6 feet 6 inches. Weight—218 pounds
Home*—Pontiac, Mich. College—Detroit

He was drafted by the Knicks in 1955, but joined the Army and last year was stationed in Germany. Last April, Sparrow was the leading scorer, with a 20-point average, as the U. S. All-Services five defeated the Olympic teams of France, Iran and Turkey in a tournament at Istanbul. He finished the 1955 season at Detroit University with 600 points, an average of 23.1, and a career total of 1,608 for an average of 18.5 in 87 Titan games. He was one of the top rebounders in the nation with 489 for 1954-55 and 1,087 for three years. His most points for one game were 42 against John Caroll, and he led the Titans in scoring as a sophomore, junior and senior. Sparrow, called "The Bird," was better known as a football player at Pontiac High. He was offered a grid scholarship by the University of Kentucky, but preferred basketball, remarking: "I don't mind if a guy hits me, but I like to get two shots at the foul line." As a youngster both of Sparrow's legs were paralyzed by a rheumatic ailment and he had to be carried to and from school by his parents. When he entered Pontiac High he was able to wobble on a pair of special braces. Gradually the ailment disappeared and he went on to become a star football and basketball player. His specialty is a one-hand jump shot. Guy is married.

CHARLES TYRA

Age*—22, born in Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16, 1935
Height*—6 feet 8 inches. Weight—235 pounds
Home*—Louisville, Ky. College—Louisville

Tyra's entry into professional basketball this season was preceded by great accomplishments as a collegian at the University of Louisville, where the last two years his scoring, rebounding and team play earned him unanimous All-America rating. New York landed him last Spring in a major trade with the Detroit Pistons, giving up veterans Harry Gallatin and Sweetwater Clifton in return for Tyra and Mel Hutchins, long established NBA star. The powerful Southerner is no stranger to Madison Square Garden fans. He led Louisville to the 1956 National Invitation Tournament championship and was voted the most valuable player, scoring 17 points against Duquesne, 29 against St. Joseph's and 27 against Dayton in the final. His rebounds for the three games were 54, an average of 18. That season he totalled 690 points in 29 games for a 23.8 average, and his 645 rebounds topped the nation. His 37 rebounds against Canisius was another high. Tyra made over 30 points on six occasions in 1955-56 including a Louisville record of 38 against Morehead. In those 29 contests Tyra was outscored by the opposing center only twice and was never out-rebounded. Nor was he over out of double figures in scoring and rebounding. Charlie holds eight all-time Louisville records. Last season in 25 games he tossed in 555 points for a 21.3 average and took 520 rebounds, third best in the country, as Louisville played one of the toughest schedules ever. Tyra, who attended Louisville's Atherton High, was named to the All-America High School team and played in the annual North-South scholastic game. His teammates called him "Moose" and "The Big Bear." He's married.

DON FRIEDERICHS—Team Trainer

Don hails from Detroit and is happy to see the "Detroit Pistons" now in the NBA. Don is in his seventh season as team trainer and road secretary for the Knicks. A young 34 years, he is the "old man" on the club. Don hasn't missed a Knick game, training or practice session in six years. He is married, now lives in Englewood, New Jersey, and during the summer he directs the pool at the Englewood, N. J., Golf Club. His biggest boast is a 180 average in bowling. Prior to entering the training field Don attended the University of Detroit and was a pharmaceutical detailman. His natural interest in sports and his medical experience in four and one-half years with the U. S. Coast Guard led him into training. After one year of training baseball in the Florida International League, he came with the Knicks in 1950. As trainer, he is mainly responsible for the health of the players by the prevention and treatment of injuries. For this he uses approximately 25,000 feet of adhesive tape a season just to prevent sprained ankles. As road secretary, he handles the details of team transportation, meals, hotels, etc.
